

3-25-20 Hey Class

Hopefully you have noticed that we have started our on-line part of our class.

The A student would have started this week 3-23- to 3-26. And will finish chapter 11 this Thursday 3-26 even though the deadline isn't until 2 weeks later on 4-9-20.(it's a long story)

The A student will finish chapter 12 Social next week (3-30 to 5-2) even though the deadline isn't until 4-16

The A student will continue to do one chapter a week until they finish everything (ch11, ch12, ch15, ch sex part1, ch sex part 2, video for final exam. They will then be done the Thursday before finals week 4-30.

The C student will wait till the last minute and start do chapter 11 the week of 4-6 and just before the deadline of 4-9.

The C student will then do chapter 12 the week of 4-13 and just before the deadline of 4-16.

The C student will then run out of time and have to use the final exam week to do both Chapter Sex part 2 AND the video for the final exam.

Being successful at an online class means you really have to be self motivated to stick to a schedule.

Right now you can complete a quiz that assesses if you have the on line ability to do the class on line. You get extra credit points for that, but the deadline is april 7 at 10 AM. Too few have completed this quiz

In fact you need to be aware of deadlines for the quizzes. If you don't complete them by the deadline, there will be NO MAKEUP. You will score a zero.

Just as before this mess, your real quiz scores are 80% of your grade. Attendance is 10% and you get attendance points now by watching the video lectures (video lectures are under the chapter buttons on our profkramer web site) and completing short quizzes on the content (quizzes in canvas).

Your score on the final exam video quiz will be 10% of your grade as well.

Email is more important than ever. Email with any questions of concerns.

Remember that I will communicate to you via email or by posting messages on our profkramer site. And you will be communicating to me via email and taking quizzes on canvas.

The module button is a good place to start on canvas. The modules are the various chapters we cover. We have practice quizzes there as well – for extra credit.

I advise us all to be A students and get started on chapter 11, then 12, then 15, then Sex(parts 1 & 2). Once I get the video final stuff on line, that stuff can be done anytime – no need to wait until the end of the course for it.

Ps. If you had a quiz in the testing center but never got in to take it. It is available on line for you (chapter 8). If you had already taken it in the testing center, we'll just have to wait for the testing center to open so I can pick them up.
